TRANSPORTATION BUILDING AND WOOLWORTH BUILDING AT NIGHT, NEW YORK CITY

Mrs E.B. Morake, 112 W. 120 St New York. U. S.A.

KMM 1 TRD 147

Through an arch of New York City Municipal Building looms the beautiful City Hall with the Woolworth and Transportation Building rising their heads in the background. The Woolworth Building, which has the Merchants' Association of New York as one of its tenants, is 792 feet high and for many years was the tallest building in the city.

Dear Chief

I hope you, Mohumagadi and Mother are well.

I met you the 3rd of April when I sailed for the States at the Hostel. I am returning in August. Will write—

Love to Mother Mohumagadi
