RESIDENT MAGISTRATE'S OFFICE.

Serowe,

24th. July, 1928.

The Headman Edirilwe Seretse,

Serowe,

My Friend,

I wish to bring to your notice the cruelty of a man named Keratile. This morning he threw a stone at a dog and broke its leg and then left it. The dog belongs to one of your people who lives near Mr. Smith's.

I think Keratile should be punished for this act and if you do not see your way clear to doing it I am willing to have him punished.

With Greetings, I am.,

G R Mettelton

Resident Magistrate.
