27th. September, 1934.

My dear Chief Tshekedi,

When I arrived from Bulawayo, to-night, I found a telegram from Mr.Jennings waiting for me, with the following message;-

PASSING THROUGH TO BULAWAYO FRIDAY RETURNING WEDNESDAY.

I do not know whether he wants to see you or me specially. Possibly he is simply letting us know that he will be passing through in case we should want him.

I got a second hand Chrysler car for Miss Haile. It is somewhat heavy for her use, but is easily handled and is in very good condition. I had a good trip. Many thanks for lending us Marti on Tuesday.

I heard from Mr.Warden at the station this afternoon that Mrs.Shaw has had another attack of pain after leaving the Hospital. They are all having an anxious time.

Bonyerile is having an anxious time I hear also. I trust the little girl is getting better.

With kindest greetings,

Yours sincerely

H.L.Burns

I called to see you at your house before I sat down to write this letter but was told that you would be staying overnight at the Kgotla.
