Dear Chief Tshekedi -

I was so glad to see in the newspaper that your wife has given you a little son — Indeed that the birth took place at the Hospital — I am sorry that you were not able such a reward, it is she - I am sure you all rejoice for her - It is particularly cheering just now, when she is in sorrow about her father's illness.

Greetings to your wife, Queen Ella - whom I do not know - & yours sister, & kind regards from

Yours sincerely,

Nora E. Bell
