Office of the Resident Magistrate

Serowe

7th September 1928.

Headman Edirilwe Seretse
(in the absence of the Chief Tshekedi)
Serowe.

My Friend,

With reference to the repairs to the motor road between Mahalapye and Basinghall I shall be glad of your approval of the road being deviated a little where it is ver bad. The old road will be kept to as far as possible but where it is very bad and where it takes long bends and is thus made farther it will be better to make a small section of new road.

With greetings

I am

Your Friend

G R Mettelton

Resident Magistrate.
